WHAT DO YOU THINK...

Luke 17:20b-21 The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed; nor will they say, "Look, here it is!" or "There it is!" For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you.

One Christmas Eve, the kingdom of God came into this family's kitchen. For several months, they had been visiting their local church. On this particular Christmas Eve, they were in the emergency room with one of their children, a five-year-old diabetic.

By 10 p.m. that night, they had arrived back home and Kathy's condition had stabilized, but Father didn't know this when he called to offer help after he had finished with the midnight mass. Stunned, the mother turned to her husband and said, "Father just offered to help us after midnight mass tonight! This is the busiest night of the year for priests!" Through the prism of that simple telephone call, they glimpsed the kingdom.

Every time we experience the kingdom coming near, it has been made manifest when people put aside self-interest and take care of each other. We are invited to do this all day, every day, more and more frequently. The world needs the kingdom of God to come among us. Let us be that.
