A MESSAGE FROM FR PIERRE FOR
ADVENT 2017

Much more than a preparation of Christmas, Advent, is above all a time to experience the joy that comes from faith.
The first week we are reminded that the Lord is counting on us to stay awake, active, engaged in continuing his mission. To be much more than a consumer. To know, that we have been chosen and counted worthy can give meaning and joy.

The second week, we are reassured that the Lord is patient. He never gives up on those he loves. The third week, Sunday of joy, we are amazed to discover that the Lord is present in our lives discovering signs of his love around us.
Finally, we share the joy of Mary, knowing, that like her, we are invited to say yes and like her to put our trust in Him.

Even though there will be no masses on Sunday morning Dec 24th, why not make a point to come at 5:00 pm on Saturday to honor Mary and enter more deeply into the joy of Christmas.

At 5pm on Saturday Dec 30 and 11am Sunday Dec 31, we will share the joy of the Holy Family and ask the Lord to bless our loved ones and protect all our families.
Have a joyful Advent – Fr Pierre Chabot
