MOTHER'S DAY

Love Song

“Mommy, I missed you!”

What a way to end my day!
Thank you, God, for choosing me to be the mother of this child.
This child who, as an infant, rarely cried.

This child who, even at two, was tolerable.

This child who now hangs suspended from my neck, doggie shoes and grandmother-crafted jammies adding that much more allure to apple-sticky lips and immovable arms.

“I missed you, too!” I tell him.

Lord, let him know how much!
Let him know how his hugs restore me, how his jubilant kisses renew me, how his stories and songs inspire me, how his daily achievements uplift me.

How blessed I am, Father, to be replenished every day through the joy of this little child's love.
