THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Unless the Lord builds the house
In vain did we clear the land;
Unless the Lord guards the city
In vain did we pave the field.
Useless all this business as usual
Passing any buck that resists being made.
Look. God Pays well
Only those able to rest in the city that never sleeps.

Above the rat race, pushing and shoving
Grabbing the last seat on the bus
Is a civic vocation
A sense of urban purpose:
Art, education, the evolution
Of dead-end species of thought,
And the slow recovery of spirit
Where was felled the sacred forest.
Happy the city that counts
Its debt to earth
And finds its honor and life
In paying back.
