DID YOU KNOW...

That the English churches in our diocese meet regularly to address concerns common to the English speaking parishes. This group known as the Anglophone Regional Committee works towards meeting the special needs of the English Catholic community. Representatives are from St. Pats, St. Thomas in Hudson, Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Chateauguay, and St. Joseph in Huntingdon and are represented by the pastor, and members of the parish. Some of the events they plan together are the English Confirmations, the Cathedral Tour, conferences for the English parishes and social activities. For our parish, representatives are Fr. Pierre, Anne Coulter and Mary Martin. If anyone is interested in attending these meetings, please contact one of the above.

THANK YOU

A big thanks to St. Pat's Softball League for their generous donations of food and money for our Food Bank.
