PREPARING FOR LENT – FAVOURITE DAY

A friend said her favourite day is Ash Wednesday, because it is the one day a year when we are honest with ourselves. That day, we confess that we are deeply broken, and we need a redeemer. We are smudged with the ash to remind ourselves of our mortality. That act is an invitation to savor this short life and to live it well.

This year, Ash Wednesday falls on March 6. So here's an invitation: Use the time before Ash Wednesday to reflect on how you might benefit from a Lenten practice that reminds you of your dependence on God's grace. Then use the Lenten season to give up those things that distract from God or to take on those things that might make you more aware of God's grace and mercy in your life.

May we all renew our journey as followers of Jesus Christ in the coming season of Lent.
