LENTEN REFLECTIONS

We are called to remove the obstacles, such as fame, wealth power, baggage, roadblocks, etc., (as seen on the altar) in our journey towards Easter.

A VERY SPECIAL FATHER

On our journey, Jesus reveals to us the greatness of God's fatherly love. He is everything except an accountant. He does not keep records of our faults. Jesus invites us to open our hearts to his love and share this love with others.
Paul insists that because of Christ, reconciliation is possible. To the wayward son, who made the wrong choices, he offers a new beginning and to the second son, to see his brother in a new light. How far can we go to accept that often we are the delinquent child and sometimes the obedient one.
How far can we go not to judge or reject others, but to go towards those who are different?
