REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

The disciples knew the immense crowd was growing hungry. “Send them away,” they urged Jesus, hoping the people would find food elsewhere. But Jesus said, “You give them something to eat.” Think about that. Jesus could have turned the stones into bread; he could have made it rain manna. Instead he made it the disciples’ responsibility to meet the crowd’s need.

How did they respond? Faithfulness. Logic may have said the task was impossible, but they stepped out in faith – because Jesus asked. They gave it their all, and even though their all wasn’t enough, they still brought it in faith – because Jesus asked.

What ‘impossible task’ might Jesus ask of us this week? To whom is he asking us to give? How will we respond?
