family home, our church has similar electricity, etc. By participating in Pat's, you will help us continue providing services and ministries that make our community vibrant.

What to you may be a small cost - like a cup of coffee a day, or a take-out meal - can make a big difference.

CDN CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS – WHAT DO THEY DO?

The Conference's engagement in issues of social justice draws inspiration from the gospel. Their work must always focus on the Lord, the giver of life, and on the promotion and defense of the dignity of the human person. In this regards CCCB is developing educational resources geared to parishes to explain palliative care and end of life, and thus support the dying, their caregivers, family members and communities.
Renewing and strengthening relationships with Indigenous Peoples is a major priority of the CCCB. They continue to promote and facilitate this reconciliation and healing through listening circles and other initiatives.
Your contributions will help them achieve their goals.
