FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

GROWING IN HOPE

On this first Sunday of Advent, the readings invite us not to lose hope, the best is still to come. For this to happen we all have a role to play. To assume this important role we must bathe in the light of Christ. Isaiah proclaims that better days are coming if we turn back to the Lord who is coming to bring peace to all. Paul tells us to get involved today, not to put things off; to fully embrace our present. Most importantly, Matthew exhorts us to stay awake, to not lose hope and to discover signs of light in our own lives.
