CHRISTMAS REFLECTION

LUKE 2:11 To you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.

An Angel of the Lord appeared in the middle of nowhere and announced to a group of manual laborers that the great kinsman redeemer and savior of the world had been born.

God trusted the word of the young girl, the goodness of a bewildered young man, and the support of an impoverished and occupied community enough to come into the world and reveal the very heart of the kingdom. That's a huge gamble for God to take on us.

You may remember that we have not always been a good bet. Just ask some of our Old Testament friends. And yet, here we still are, marveling at this brand-new, beautiful sign of hope and life and peace, the incarnation of the promise that all things that shall be well. God does take that gamble, does bet on us to do right by this baby, to do right by each other, to do right by this incredible, beautiful, precious, and holy story every single day.
