miss your special date. Call Erin during

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

The Gospel for the feast of the Presentation is a fitting way to mark the World Day for Consecrated Life.
In today's Gospel, two prophets, Simeon and Anna, proclaim Jesus as the longed-for Savior. Simeon, in particular, is filled with the Spirit, the Spirit through whom Jesus is "a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."

Catholic Wisdom!

Psalm 37:4 Take delight in the Lord, and he shall give you your heart's desire.

I am a very happy person – I can find something to smile about in any situation.
My favourite Bible verse is Psalm 37:4 "Take delight in the Lord." This phrase reminds me of the joy I feel every time I see my son and the delight I feel when I hear him making music.

I can say with conviction that God has given me the desires of my heart. I don't think that if I smile at God, I get what I want. Rather, the psalmist is reminding us of an attitude of gratitude that helps us see how generous God truly is. Often, little silent heart-prayers will reveal themselves as I see them manifested in front of me: singing at an event, earning a doctorate, traveling for work.

I recently complained inside my heart about traveling and that still small voice said: You prayed for this. Immediately, my smile came back: I remembered this verse and took delight in God.
