This Week's Readings:

God reminds us that we need not fear. Jesus gives us the simple solution to fear; 'Abide in My love'.

Acts 10: 25-26, 34-35, 44-48 – God is impartial; he welcomes every nation and anyone who fears him. He who does what is right is acceptable to Him.

Psalms 98 – Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvellous things in our eyes.

1 John 4: 7-10 – God sent His son into the world so that we might live through him.

John 15: 9-17 – I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

Laughter relieves stress. It creates a lightheartedness and helps us enjoy life at a higher level. Humour lifts the human spirit.

POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE

“Christ's love is not selective; it embraces everyone... He is everyone's shepherd. Jesus wants everyone to be able to receive the Father's love and encounter God. And the Church is called to carry on this mission of Christ. Beyond those who participate in our communities, there is the majority, many people, who do so only at particular moments or never. But this does not mean they are not God's children: the Father entrusts everyone to Jesus the Good Shepherd, and He gave His life for everyone. Brothers and sisters, Jesus defends, knows and loves us, everyone.”
