This Week's Readings:

Listening attentively to the quiet guidance of the Holy Spirit, we discover a new found confidence.

Acts 2: 1-11 – All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Psalms 104 – May the Glory of the Lord endure.

1 Corinthians 12: 3b-7, 12-13 – No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit.

John 20: 19-23 – Jesus said to them, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them. “Receive the Holy Spirit”.

POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE

“We can contemplate by gazing at the sun that rises in the morning, or at the trees that deck themselves out in spring green; we can contemplate by listening to music or to the sounds of the birds, reading a book, gazing at a work of art or at that masterpiece that is the human face....

First of all to contemplate is not a way of doing, but a way of being. To be contemplative. And being contemplative does not depend on the eyes, but on the heart.”
