This Week's Readings:

The liturgy this Sunday invites us to share, as the apostles were, the body and blood of Jesus, to remember, to celebrate and to grow in life and love.

Exodus 24: 3-8 – Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, “see the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words”.

Psalms 116 – I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

Hebrews 9: 11-15 – How much more will the blood of Christ, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God!

Mark 14: 12-16, 22-26 – Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them and said: “Take; this is my body.”

POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE

“To love as Jesus means to offer yourself in service, at the service of your brothers and sisters, as He did in washing the feet of the disciples. It also means going outside of ourselves, detaching ourselves from our own human certainties, from earthly comforts, in order to open ourselves up to others, especially those in greater need. It means making ourselves available, as we are and with what we have. This means to love not in word but in deeds.”
