LITURGY 101

Purpose: The Sign of the Cross

We must remember that it is our Lord Jesus who has invited us, who welcomes us, who has prepared and is serving the meal. The sign of the cross at the beginning of the Mass reminds us of this.

Also, Jesus was sent to us by the Father and the Holy Spirit. I invite you to make an effort to find all the times the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are mentioned. You will be surprised!
Remember: we were baptized in the name of The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. – Fr. Pierre

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

It is God's love that makes us love both self and neighbour rightly!
- Venerable Fulton Sheen

REFLECTION

“Let us try to read a page of the Gospel every day, to pray with the psalms, to read the prophets! We will be comforted by the Lord's faithfulness. The Scriptures will also help us to understand what the Lord is asking of our lives today... I was called to become the Bishop of Rome when I had reached, so to speak, retirement age and thought I would not be doing anything new. The Lord is always – always – close to us.
He is close to us with new possibilities, new ideas, new consolations, but always close to us. You know that the Lord is eternal; he never, ever goes into retirement.”

- Pope Francis
