PARISH BULLETIN

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend there will be a special collection for the Missions. The theme for this year is “Here I am, send me”. Saying “Here I am” is to say Christians hope for a world without poverty! Only then will the Kingdom have arrived.

‘NIGHT WITHOUT SHELTER’

Next weekend will be the last time to get your donations in for the Night without Shelter Event. There is a box in the vestibule your donations of hygiene products (travel sizes), snacks, gloves, hats and socks. These items will be distributed to people in need in our area. For more info go to: nuitdessansabri.com

REFLECTION

“Dear sister, dear brother, do you want proof that God has touched your life? See if you can stoop to bind the wounds of others.

Today is the day to ask, “Am I, who so often have received God’s peace and mercy, merciful to others? Do I, who have so often been fed by the Body of Jesus, make any effort to relieve the hunger of the poor?” Let us not remain indifferent. Let us not live a one-way faith, a faith that receives but does not give, a faith that accepts the gift but does not give it in return. Having received mercy, let us now become merciful.”

- Pope Francis

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - back to basics! Lesson #6

Purpose: Colours

You may have noticed the colour of the vestments, the altar cloth and decorations change at different times of the year. The change of colour helps us enter in the seasons of the church, the special times. Lent and advent are times of meditation, prayer and penitence and are marked by the colour purple. Christmas and Easter are times of celebration and are marked by white. In ordinary times, green invites us to reflection and meditation. As you see, at Mass all colours have a purpose and we have been working at it for over two thousand years.
