PARISH BULLETIN

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH

The year of St. Joseph ends in December. Deacon Nic will be hosting a 33-day consecration to St. Joseph. Our meetings are Sundays at 2pm in the hall. All are welcome to join. To assist with your journey, obtain the book 'Consecration to St. Joseph: Wonders of our Spiritual Father' by Fr. Donald Calloway, available thru Amazon.

HELP WANTED

We are looking for two volunteers who are tech capable to operate the sound and streaming system at the 9am Mass. You will be trained. If interested please contact Eric at ejc_001@yahoo.ca

REFLECTION

"In these days of pandemic, when there is a temptation to disguise and justify indifference and apathy in the name of healthy social distancing, there is urgent need for the mission of compassion, which can make that necessary distancing an opportunity for encounter, care and promotion... In our present circumstances, there is an urgent need for missionaries of hope who, anointed by the Lord, can provide a prophetic reminder that no one is saved by himself." –Pope Francis

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - Lesson #8

Subject: The Bible and the Mass
To begin to grasp the wonder and the deep beauty of our Mass, we must thank the Bible, this collection of 73 books recognized as inspired by the Holy Spirit. The Old Testament relates the story of God entering into a relationship, an alliance with Israel. He gave them the Law and was preparing them for the coming of Jesus. The New Testament shares with us the experience of the First Christians and what they knew of Jesus' life and message; especially of His Presence in the community gathered to share the bread and wine. We can find the roots of every element of our Mass in the Bible. – Fr. Pierre

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

"Ask Him to lovingly develop you spiritually so that He may use you as example for others."

- Jane Trufant Harvey

MISSALS

The Missals will be available next weekend.
