Weekly reflections For the Synod

Week 3: Speaking Out

Everyone is invited to express themselves with courage and compassion, that is, freely, in truth and charity.

- ∞ What promotes or hinders courageous, frank and responsible speech in our local Church and in society?
- ∞ When and how do we manage to say what we think is important?
- ∞ What relationships do we have with the local media (not just the Catholic press)?
- ∞ Do we speak out in our communities?
- ∞ Who speaks for the Christian community? And how do we choose them?

If you are interested in answering these questions, please send an email to synode@diocesevalleyfield.org or leave them in the collection basket.

Thank you for your participation!

Mélanie Pilon, Diocese of Valleyfield

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“God certainly hears all prayers, but maybe the answer He gives is one we don’t expect.” Fr Andrew Apostoli

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - Lesson #9

Subject: Liturgy of the Word (Part 1)

The Liturgy is an important part of the Mass. It is much more than just a preparation before the consecration. It opens our hearts to the profound presence of Jesus at communion. The first reading is from the Old Testament, which contains 47 books and took many centuries to come about. This reading helps us to remember all that God had accomplished before the arrival of Jesus. Each book was written at a different time to tell of God’s interventions, His plans, and His love for us. Without the Old Testament, it is hard to understand Jesus and the deep meaning of our faith.

– Fr. Pierre
