PARISH BULLETIN

6TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Reflections For the Synod

Theme 10: Forming ourselves into synodality
The spirituality of walking together is called to become the educational principle of the human and Christian formation of the person, of the formation of families and communities.

- ∞ What are we doing to develop mutual listening and dialogue?
- ∞ What formation do we offer to foster discernment and the exercise of authority in a synodal style?
- ∞ Are we sensitive to the impact of culture on the lifestyle of our church?

Consecration to St Joseph (in Spanish)

On February 12 at 3pm, in the church, we will be starting the Consecration to St. Joseph. For more information call Esmirna at 514-993-8782

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“The journey of life and faith demands a deep desire and inner zeal. Sometimes we live in a spirit of a “parking lot”; we stay parked, without the impulse of desire that carries us forward. We do well to ask: where are we on our journey of faith? Have we been stuck all too long, nestled inside a conventional, external and formal religiosity that no longer warms our hearts and changes our lives?”

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - Lesson #18

Subject: Celebration of the Word
When there is no priest to celebrate the mass, it is important for the community to come together to proclaim and meditate on the Word of the Lord, to pray as a community, to say the Our Father and receive the Body of Christ from previously consecrated hosts. A Deacon, a pastoral agent or a lay person is called to lead the assembly in prayer. This does not replace the mass but helps the community until, by our prayers, the Lord calls vocation to the priesthood.

It is also recommended to take communion to members of the community who cannot attend. When we bring holy communion to a sick person it is always important to read the gospel of the day, to pray, and to say the Our Father before giving communion. It must always become an encounter, a celebration of Jesus' presence and love and not a 'quick-fix'.

– Fr. Pierre
