SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

Some weeks, after I take communion, pray, and leave the church building, it's almost like Jesus vanishes from my life. I hear the Bible readings. The sermon speaks of the good news of the gospels. Often, I am inspired by these words. My heart is burning as the scriptures are being opened to me. But Monday comes. During the week, my spiritual eyes close. I cannot see Jesus when he is the person right in front of me, the man on the sidewalk asking for spare change, the chatty lady who wants company, the family member who needs my full attention.

But there are other weeks when all I see is Jesus. During those times, I give thanks for the life-giving encounters with strangers, friends, and family who each remind me of Jesus.

EASTER REFLECTION

"Let us cling to the certainty that God can forgive every sin. He forgives everyone. He can bridge every distance, and turn all mourning into dancing. The certainty that with Jesus there is always a place for everyone. That with Christ things are never over. That with him, it is never too late. With God, we can always come back to life. Take courage!... For Christ constantly intercedes for us before the Father.

Gazing upon our violent and tormented world, he never tires of repeating: Father, forgive them for they know not what they do. Let us now do the same, in silence, in our hearts, and repeat: Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."

Pope Francis
