PENTECOST SUNDAY

We are fortunate in our Parish to have people from so many diverse cultures. On June 5th at Pentecost Sunday, we would like to invite all to come dressed in their traditional garments so that we, as a community, can celebrate our wealth of diversity. Pentecost is the unity of all the children of God, united in the one Holy Spirit.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

"Give prayer priority in your life, and you will be amazed at just how delightful the rest of your life still can be."
- Matthew Kelly

EASTER REFLECTION

I used to pray by giving God a laundry list of my wants and desires. Often, I ended these prayer requests with, "In Jesus' name. Amen." Most of my requests seemed to go unanswered. I do think God was listening, rather deeply, actually. God heard what I wanted, in my name. But God also knew me better than I knew myself. So instead of offering what I wanted, God offered what I needed, even when I could not recognize it at the moment.

Over time God has taught me to listen to myself. I know myself a little better each day. I still don't know me as well as God does, but I've progressed enough to pray a little differently these days. These days, I find I pray less for what I want and more for what I need, and I'm also able to recognize and give thanks for how God is offering that to me. My joy is far from complete, but I am more consistently joyful as a result of shifting how I think about prayer...
