PENTECOST SUNDAY

We are fortunate in our Parish to have people from so many diverse cultures. On June 5th at Pentecost Sunday, we would like to invite all to come dressed in their traditional garments so that we, as a community, can celebrate our wealth of diversity. Pentecost is the unity of all the children of God, united in the one Holy Spirit.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“Those who listen to others know how to listen to the Lord, too, and vice versa. And they experience something very beautiful, that is, that the Lord himself listens – he listens to us when we pray to him, when we confide in him, when we call on him.”

Pope Francis

EASTER REFLECTION

““Honour thy father and mother” is a solemn commitment, the first of the “second tablet” of the Ten Commandments. It is not just about one’s own father and mother. It is about their generation and the generations before, whose leave-taking can also be slow and prolonged, creating a time and space of long-lasting coexistence with the other ages of life. In other words, it is about the old age of life... Today we have rediscovered the term ‘dignity’, to indicate the value of respecting and caring for the life of everyone. Dignity, here, is essentially equivalent to honour: honouring father and mother, honouring the elderly is recognizing the dignity they possess.”
