PARISH BULLETIN

HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

350TH CELEBRATION

This weekend we celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity and the beginning of summer and the 350th Anniversary of Île Perrot.

Did you know:

- The island was granted on October 29, 1672, to François-Marie Perrot (1644-1691), captain in the Picardy Regiment and governor of Montreal in 1670.
- In 1786, the place received its first parish priest.
- In 1845, the Municipality of l'Isle-Perrot was founded, abolished in 1847, and re-established in 1855 as the Parish Municipality of Sainte-Jeanne-Chantal-de-l'Isle-Perrot (partially taking the name of the Sainte-Jeanne-Chantal Parish established there in 1832).
- In 1946, its name was changed to L'Île-Perrot, and in 1955, it changed statutes from parish municipality to ville.
- In 1949, L'Île-Perrot greatly reduced in size when a large part of its territory was split off to form the new Parish Municipality of Notre-Dame-de-l'Île-Perrot.
- In 1965, St Patrick of the Island Parish opened its doors for the English speaking community.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

“We tend to think that love comes from keeping our fidelity and our devotion. Yet the Spirit reminds us that without love as our basis, all the rest is in vain. And that love comes not so much from our abilities, but as His gift. He teaches us to love and we have to ask for this gift. The Spirit pours love into our hearts, He makes us feel loved and He teaches us how to love. He is the “motor” of our spiritual lives. He sets it in motion within us. But if we do not begin from the Spirit, or with the Spirit or through the Spirit, we will get nowhere.”

Pope Francis

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“The real test of a Christian is not how much he loves his friends, but how much he loves his enemies.”
– Fulton Sheen
