SUNDAY REFLECTION

“The love that we receive from the Lord is the force that transforms our lives. It opens our hearts and enables us to love. For this reason, Jesus says – “as I have loved you, so must you love one another”. That word “as” is not simply an invitation to imitate Jesus’ love; it tells us that we are able to love only because he has loved us, because he pours into our hearts his own Spirit, the Spirit of holiness, love that heals and transforms. As a result, we can make decisions and perform works of love in every situation and for every brother and sister whom we meet, because we ourselves are loved and we have the power to love. As I myself am loved, so I can love others... The Christian life is just that simple. Let’s not make it more complicated with so many things.
It is just that simple.”

Pope Francis

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“The quality of one’s life is easily measured by the quality of the people in their life.”
