SUNDAY REFLECTION

“The Christian faith always asks us to walk alongside others, never to be solitary wayfarers. Faith always urges us to move beyond ourselves and towards God and our brothers and sisters, never to remain enclosed within ourselves. Faith invites us to acknowledge constantly that we are in need of healing and forgiveness, and to share in the frailty of those who are near to us, without feeling ourselves superior.”

Pope Francis

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

There is a special collection this weekend for the Missions. The theme for this year is “You will be my witness”.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

This is why Catholics genuflect when they come to church:

They know that this is a holy place, and to be found on one's knee is a very good posture in such precincts. It says, ceremonially, not verbally, ‘I am a creature and thou art my Creator. I am thy child and thou art my Father. I am a subject and thou art my Sovereign. And, alas, I am a sinner, and thou art holy.’ To kneel, only briefly, in this fashion is to order one's body as well as one's mind to what is true.
