SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

Giving thanks warms the soul and reminds us that life is an extraordinary privilege. Joy doesn't come from having, but from appreciating what we have.

- Matthew Kelly

Lenten Reflection

The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord. (Psalm 32:5)

The media draws our attention to what is wrong in the world. It is their role and duty to keep us well informed, not to discourage or scandalize us but to call us to seek solutions together to solve or prevent problems. Having said that, it is up to us to discern what is being done that is beautiful and good in spite of everything, even in the midst of trials, so that we can see the goodness of the Lord sprouting. He is there in the hearts of the volunteers who serve the victims of war or disaster. He is there in the compassionate person who is present with the unloved and the disenfranchised. He is there when we go through stormy days. It is the caress of a child or the friendly gesture of a loved one. It is the song of a bird or the murmur of a stream that calms us and makes us believe in tomorrow. It is the sun coming out of the clouds to remind us that the best is yet to come. Today, I open my eyes and let myself be amazed.
I feed on the signs of the Father's goodness.

*Lord, I can never thank you enough for all that you do for us, your children. With my brothers and sisters, I thank you for so much goodness. We count on you so much.
We trust in you. Amen.*
