Reflection

Food for body and soul is the tagline.

Today's Gospel offers the source of that food and it is Jesus. Earlier in John's Gospel, some disciples complain; in today's text, they dispute among themselves, asking how this can be. What is meant to unite us can cause division, even today. How do we approach the table? Who else comes to the table with us? When disputes arise, we must not lose sight of the gift and the Giver. Jesus offers us not only living bread but eternal life.

St Paul invites us to remember that, though many, we are one. Very truly, we are reminded, may we be grateful. Today, let us leave our questions and disputes at the door so that we may live forever.

ARE YOU GOOD WITH NUMBERS?

We need people to help count the Sunday collection. One weekend per month, you will be required to count, post and do bank deposit. If this is your field of expertise, give the office a call. Training will be provided. For more info, call Mary 514-453-3329.
