REFLECTION

Like many of you, I have a lot of plates spinning in the air. Work, family, school, and church responsibilities all beg for attention. With commitments nearly every day, I cherish when I have some rare free time.

On a recent empty calendar day, I ran a couple of necessary errands but then spent the rest of the day hanging out on my couch, binge-watching a favorite show. I still had a bunch of stuff on my to-do list, but I decided to set those aside. I enjoyed a refreshing, much-needed re-set day. The next morning, I felt rested and ready to tackle the list again.

Rest is necessary for living. God knows we can't just keep going and going without time to refuel and refresh. Taking Sabbath time so important that God elevated it to one of the Big Ten. How you spend your Sabbath time is up to you: vegging on the couch, taking a long lunch with friends, reading a book, praying. The critical this is reserving Sabbath time in our busy lives, remembering God wants us to rest so we can continue to do the work we have been given.

ARE YOU IN NEED?

During these difficult times, if you are struggling to feed your family, we can help. Please reach out to Fr Pierre or Deacon Nic.
