REFLECTION

When God appeared to Moses as a wild bush enflamed, God had a dream for him: a dream of being a savior, a dream of freedom and of parting waters. Yet even with this dream from the lips of God, doubt poured from Moses' mouth, "Who am I to lead the people of Egypt?"
When God appeared to Abraham and Sarah and expressed the dream that Sarah would bear a son in her advanced age, doubt wrapped in laughter fell from her mouth.

What do you do with God's dream for you? When God whispers to a blade of grass to grow, does the blade answer "No, not I"? Pay attention. Listen for God's dream. Embrace God's dream. Nothing is too wonderful for the Lord.

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - back to basics!
Week 7: Music
The songs, the music, the choir are all there to help us experience the sacred, the presence of the Lord. They are not there to give a concert, to perform or to impress but as a ministry, a service to help us praise the Lord, to ask forgiveness, to adore at communion, to inspire us, to give hope. Everyone is welcome to join in – take part. The next time you hear music at Mass or the Choir, please do not listen but take part. It makes a difference.
– Fr. Pierre

Something to Think About
"Each time we receive the Bread of Life, Jesus comes to give new meaning to our fragilities. He reminds us that in his eyes we are more precious than we think."
– Pope Francis
