REFLECTION

We are all called to witness and proclaim the message that "God is love", that God isn't far and insensitive to our human affairs. He is close to us, always beside us, walking with us to share our joys and our sorrows, our hopes and our struggles.
He loves us very much and for that reason he became man, he came into the world not to condemn it, but so the world would be saved through Jesus." - Pope Francis

Something to Think About When we meet at Mass, we are united in communion with Christ.

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - back to basics!
Week 8: The Bible and the Mass To begin to grasp the wonder and the deep beauty of our Mass, we must thank the Bible, this collection of 73 books recognized as inspired by the Holy Spirit. The Old Testament relates the story of God entering into a relationship, an alliance with Israel. He gave them the Law and was preparing them for the coming of Jesus. The New Testament shares with us the experience of the First Christians and what they knew of Jesus' life and message; especially of His Presence in the community gathered to share the bread and wine. We can find the roots of every element of our Mass in the Bible. – Fr. Pierre
