REFLECTION

"The gaze of God never stops at our past, full of errors, but looks with infinite confidence at what we can become. And if at times we feel we are people who are "small of stature", not up to the challenges of life and far less of the Gospel, mired in problems and sins, Jesus always looks at us with love. As with Zacchaeus, he comes towards us, he calls us by name and, if we welcome him, he comes to our home." – Pope Francis

LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101 - back to basics!
Week 9: Liturgy of the Word (Part 1)

The Liturgy is an important part of the Mass. It is much more than just a preparation before the consecration.
It opens our hearts to the profound presence of Jesus at communion.
The first reading is from the Old Testament, which contains 47 books and took many centuries to come about. This reading helps us to remember all that God had accomplished before the arrival of Jesus. Each book was written at a different time to tell of God's interventions, His plans, and His love for us. Without the Old Testament, it is hard to understand Jesus and the deep meaning of our faith.
– Fr. Pierre

Something to Think About Prayer is, therefore, the source and origin of every upward journey toward God. – St Bonaventure
