LITURGY 101

Welcome to Liturgy 101-back to basics!
Week 19: Keeping Sunday Holy
Today in the 21st century we need to hear Jesus’ statement that the Sabbath was made for humankind. We work more than ever, produce more than ever, and are more exhausted than ever. The forth commandment was given to us as a gift – and not just to us, but to the marginalized, those without power or influence, those who have no choice but to work. The commandment specifies children, immigrants, people of service – all were to be given a day of rest. Instead of doing away with the Sabbath, we would do well to honour it. After all, it was made for us.
– Fr. Pierre

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“Beware of angling for compliments, lest you lose God’s favour in exchange for people’s praise.” St Jerome
