PARISH BULLETIN
25TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

REFLECTION

“Sticks and stones may break my bones but names will never hurt me.” How many of you were taught this growing up? For me, it’s one of the biggest lies from my childhood. I may have forgotten the physical cuts, bruises and scars I received growing up, but the words still linger decades after childhood. Words have far more power than we give them credit. Words have power to give life. Words have the power to ruin lives as well. Jesus uses words to heal. In the beginning, God spoke the universe into existence. Words have power. And, as Uncle Ben of Superman fame said, “With great power comes great responsibility.” We should all be aware of the power of our words.
