REFLECTION

Bewilderment. Astonishment. Incomprehension. It is hard to imagine how disconcerting the experience of finding an empty tomb would have been, first for Mary, and then for the apostles whom she told. How could this be explained?

Hope. Wonder. Joy. Then, one by one, Jesus revealed Himself to them. Those who have experienced the death of someone know how surreal it feels for the first few days. Imagine how surreal it must have felt to have Jesus return again from the dead! Alive! Speaking!

At Easter we proclaim that all grief and fear is but a prelude to wonder and joy. The frozen, barren ground yields new life and beauty. Tyrants fall from their thrones. Daisies push through concrete. Wounds slowly heal. Life conquers death.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Glory be to you, who laid your cross as a bridge over death that souls might pass over it from the dwelling of the dead to the dwelling of life.

-St Ephrem the Syrian
